Asunto: Invitation to Linnaeus University International Staff Training Week 2024

Dear Colleagues of Linnaeus University Partner Institutions,

It is with great pleasure that we invite you to

Linnaeus University International Staff Training Week 2024

with the theme

"Intercultural competencies and Changemaking"

taking place in Kalmar and Växjö, Sweden

May 13th - 17th, 2024

We welcome participation from both academic and administrative staff for an opportunity to learn and share about intercultural competencies and changemaking from the higher education perspective. Staff training and professional development takes place through participation in various workshops and through networking and sharing expertise with participants and colleagues from Linnaeus University and its partners. In addition, you will be able to explore the campuses of Kalmar and Växjö with region.

Please follow this link for a brief introduction to the week, a preliminary programme, and information about how to apply.

Kindly send your application by February 25th, 2024. Our staff training week has in general a high interest and we will need to fill spaces ensuring a wide spread of partner institutions, regions, and professionals.

We appreciate that you share this invitation throughout your institution and look forward to hearing from you soon!
