

REGULATION OF THE ACADEMIC REGIME AND ASSESSMENT OF STUDENTS UNIVERSITAT POLITÈCNICA DE VALÈNCIA (UPV)

Approved in the Governing Council on February 3, 2022
(modified on April 28, 2022)

---

Title VI. Of the students in special academic regime

Article 31. Visiting students

1. Visiting students of the UPV are considered to be those national or foreign university students or graduates who, with prior authorization, receive teaching in any Structure Responsible for the Degree of the same, without implying academic recognition of the studies previously completed nor, in general, of those carried out at this University. For these purposes, the teachings received will have an exclusively formative nature. Exceptionally, those applicants who, without having university studies, accredit through the appropriate justifications, meet the sufficient training level in the specific field for which they request registration, may obtain the aforementioned consideration.
  2. The admission of these students corresponds to the Rectorate of the University, following a report from the management of the Structure Responsible for the corresponding Degree.
  3. Visiting students will stay at the University for a minimum period of three months and a maximum of twelve months. Extraordinarily and in view of the special characteristics of the teaching requested, permanence may be authorized for periods other than those indicated.
  4. For enrollment purposes, visiting students will pay the fees established by regulation for each academic year in the applicable regional legislation, and must prove at the time of enrollment that they have covered any contingency due to illness or accident during the period of stay at the UPV.
  5. This type of enrollment will not be included in the scope of application of scholarships and official aid.
  6. Visiting student status acquired after enrolment, will make it possible to make use of the facilities and services of the UPV and the corresponding accreditation as such.
  7. Visiting students will be able to take evaluation tests and obtain the corresponding grade, which will appear in the specific report.
  8. As proof that proves their permanence at the UPV and the results obtained, visiting students may request from the Structure Responsible for the corresponding Degree the appropriate certificate that proves said extremes, and in which the condition of the student will be expressly stated. student and the nature of the studies completed.
-